
Coming back from the dead?

A man from Nazareth

4 Historical Facts

- He was killed and buried in a well-known tomb.
- The tomb was found to be empty by a group of women followers
- Multiples times, under different circumstances different individuals and groups of people claim to have seem him alive
- His followers, despite having many reason to believe the contrary, believed he came back to life

Conclusion?

- It's a legend that developed over time
- The followers stole his body and made up a lie
- He did come back from the dead